

DPW Holdings Announces Second Notice of Noncompliance with NYSE American Listing Standards

Jul 03, 2019 2:13 PM

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- DPW Holdings, Inc. (NYSE American: DPW) a diversified holding company (the “Company”) announced today that it has received a deficiency letter dated July 3, 2019 (the “Letter”) from the NYSE American LLC (the “Exchange”). On January 4, 2019, the Exchange had sent the Company the original deficiency letter (the “Prior Letter”), which indicated that the Company was not in compliance with the continued listing standards as set forth in Section 1003(f)(v) of the NYSE American Company Guide (the “Company Guide”). Specifically, the Prior Letter informed the Company that the Exchange had determined that the shares of the Company's common stock (the “Shares”) have been selling for a low price per share for a substantial period of time and, pursuant to Section 1003(f)(v) of the Company Guide (the “Price Noncompliance”), the Company's continued listing is predicated on the Company effecting a reverse stock split of the Shares or otherwise demonstrating sustained price improvement within a reasonable period of time, which the Exchange determined to be no later than July 4, 2019.

In the Letter, the Exchange advised the Company that it has yet to become compliant with the Price Noncompliance provision and that the listing of its Shares is therefore being continued pursuant to an extension temporarily granted by the Exchange. Finally, the Exchange informed the Company that it will determine whether or not the Company has regained compliance with the Price Noncompliance provision no later than July 19, 2019
